There is a whole lot of words that can come off of putting cloth words with snake words, referring to specific aspects. Narashpizaas is a funny one because it's a portmanteau of snake den and suitable. Many possible interpretation based on context.

2417	גז	גז: גז	Peedal, Dallaape, Dallapoy	Tale of Cups, The Cup game	Memory game which can be played with 101 (65) marked “cups”, or cards. Each person starts with taking 4 cups, and hide them from their opponents. Then they play each two cups at the time, showing the other players what they are playing. If switching a cup, must use that cup. Best hand of the moment wins and gives one point, which balances towards zero. There should always be an unplayable number of cups left, and they can reduce the points of whoever won. True cups trump wild cups. Wild cups always give the best outcome. Best hands are: 5 different, 1 only, 5 same, 4 different, 4 same, 3 different, 3 same, 2 pairs, 2 same. Not everyone agrees on those and it can get pretty rowdy.

You have to watch out for the Inki and Anoi however, they can make a pretty sad mess. One is bound to take care of others in those months, but to a point. This is why it is common to give a great meal the first night of hosting a stranger, a good meal the second, an okay meal the third, and slightly burnt one the fourth. One is usually not welcome past a week (of five days).

5735	ᠰᠤ᠋ᠨ	ᠰᠤ᠋ᠨ	Korukaa	Boar Great hunting animal, but also great danger if one is unprepared. When doing a complex task, one somehow calls upon the boar to focus. As such, it's become the same word for a target when using bow and arrow, and to achieve a hunt of it is synonymous to a well prepared victory. When someone fails spectacularly at anything, "Korukka Keru?" What boar? As if to say from the mind of the other, wait, we were going to hunt a boar?

Because of this, the owl slowly became a symbol of transportation in uncertain areas, to then become a symbol of transportation proper.
